Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-22, and 41-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Downs et al. U.S. Patent 6,226,618 [Downs], Dorak, Jr. U.S. Patent 6,389,403 [Dorak], and further in view of Swiz et al. U.S. Patent 6,718,551 [Swiz].

As per claims 1, and 41:

Downs discloses:

a content database for storing the media content offering delivered from said content management system; Col. 8, lines 55-67.

a rack operable to receive the media content offering from said content management system, said rack including a file repository for storing media content associated with the media content offering; Col. 8, lines 55-67. and a server adapted to distribute media content stored in said file repository. Col. 8, lines 55-67.

a processor operable to combine media assets and metadata. Fig. 1.

Downs discloses the claimed invention except for a content management system having a processor operable to combine media assets and metadata based on selected groupings of the consumers to create a media content offering for each selected grouping of the consumers, said content management system being operable to select the media content offering for distribution to the selected groupings of the consumers based on at least one of a geographical location, a bit rate service, a service provider, and a contractual term and to aggregate the selected media content offering into a rollout available for exhibition to the consumers. However, Downs does teach about data mining, Col. 11, lines 12-15 and broadcasting to customers based upon their preferences and buying habits. Col. 71, lines 25-40, Col. 72, lines 5-18, and Col. 78,

Col. 3, lines 25-65, Col. 4, lines 20-30, Col. 5, lines 1-20, 45-50, Col. 7, lines 15-67, Col. 8, lines 15-25, lines 55-67, Col. 9, lines 1-5, and col. 12, lines 5-12.

Downs further disclose:

a subscriber management system for creating a plurality of subscriber accounts, said subscriber management system including at least one processor and at least one medium for storing subscriber account information, said processor being operable to maintain the subscriber accounts and includes a procedure for billing the subscriber accounts, said subscriber management system being operable to group individual consumers into the selected groupings for receiving selected media content -offering specific for at least one of the selected groupings. Col. 11, lines 8-15, Col. Col. 34, lines 55-67, Col. 42, lines 35-65.
